BOARD POLICY

The Nebraska State Colleges are tax-supported state institutions and may be visited by the general public under certain conditions.

College campus property includes buildings, grounds, and parking lots. Not all property on college campuses is open to the general public. Restricted areas which are not open to the general public include, but are not limited to, the following:

• Classrooms, laboratories and storage areas;
• Faculty and staff offices;
• Student residence buildings used for student living quarters; and,
• Locked college buildings during posted “closed” hours.

Visitors or guests who pose unreasonable risks to the safety and security of persons or property on campus, who violate college policies or rules, or who have damaged property on campus have no "right" to be on college property and may be advised to leave by the President or other authorized college personnel and may be issued a written notice of trespass as provided below. Visitors and guests are responsible to understand and comply with college policies and rules related to their conduct on college property.

PROCEDURE

Trespass Notice

Colleges may ban individuals from college property (either specified portions of the College campus or the campus in its entirety) by issuing a written notice of trespass. Violation of a trespass notice will be deemed to constitute trespassing on College property and the person may be cited and subject to prosecution for criminal trespass in violation of Neb. Rev. Stat. §28-520 or §28-521.
