WORK SESSION
The Work Session was called to order at 9:30 a.m. A summary of strategic planning activities and progress report on the MGT recommendations was provided to the Board. The summary reviewed strategic planning issues that have been considered by the Board of Trustees since 1991 and the progress report highlighted changes that have been made based on 1997 MGT recommendations. Areas that remain under discussion are those that involve basic alterations in role and mission of the colleges, philosophical issues and financial issues. It is expected that a formalized, published plan will be available by mid-2000 to provide a working document for future growth and development of the Nebraska State College System.

The Board identified the following activities and issues to be addressed this spring:

- Several Board members should plan to attend the Annual National Conference on Trusteeship sponsored by the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges (AGB) March 18-21 to gain a fuller appreciation of current issues faced by governing boards
- The Executive Director was asked to explore the possibility of hiring an AGB consultant to lead a workshop on board responsibilities
- Schedule a spring retreat (in April or May) to address the following issues identified by the Board:
  - Role of the System Executive Director and Presidents of the State Colleges
  - Personnel Structure of the System Office and Colleges (i.e., internal audits, legislative responsibility)
  - Increasing Lobbying Efforts (i.e., establish and maintain a set percentage of the state budget, develop a pro-active legislative agenda, increase political strength)
  - Examine System-wide Marketing (i.e., promote role and mission of the State Colleges)

Following this discussion, a recess was called at 11:10 a.m.

PUBLIC SESSION
The Public Session was called to order at 11:40 a.m.

Ms. Cady related concerns expressed by Chadron State College students and some faculty regarding the four-day exam week. Dr. Krause explained that, in order to comply with the required 75 instructional days each semester, one of those instructional days was moved to the Monday of exam week. Dr. Stearns commented that the spring mid-term break is scheduled at the same time as Wayne State College athletic conference championships. Dr. Krause explained that it was the Board’s intent to establish a common calendar, with common breaks, that would allow for course sharing among the campuses. This same spring break is observed by the University system.

Appropriation Committee Hearing Schedule

The Appropriation Committee Hearing for the Nebraska State College System is scheduled for Monday, January 31. Dr. Krause and the Presidents will be prepared to address the Committee. Board members are encouraged to attend.

INFORMATION ITEMS
Executive Director, Presidents’ and Student Trustees’ Reports

Dr. Krause informed the Board members that Mr. Alan Peterson of Cline Williams Wright Johnson & Oldfather law firm has been contacted to assist in securing a contract for the Wayne State College utility services. Mr. Peterson informed System Office staff of a pending lawsuit against the State of Nebraska that may be viewed as a conflict of interest. Several Attorney General opinions have stated that there is no conflict. Board members indicated that the System Office and Wayne State College should continue working with Mr. Peterson.

Dr. Krepel distributed a packet of information on items related to Chadron State College, including a co-op/internship partnership between Lozier and Chadron State College targeting undergraduate students of the Industrial management program; and a partnership between Cabela’s, Western Nebraska Community College and Chadron State College. He also highlighted an article on the beginnings of Chadron State College found in the Winter 1999 issue of the Nebraska Humanities publication.

Dr. Stearns reported on the continued emphasis at Wayne State College on teacher quality/teacher shortage issues. Representatives from the campus and Wayne community attended a conference in Washington, D.C. that was very beneficial and informative.

Dr. Johnson reported on a new marketing campaign that has been developed for Peru State College. He also announced that JRW Sales, a telemarketing firm, has been recruited to locate at the campus, providing up to 70 jobs for student employees.

Ms. Cady reported that Chadron State College students are interested in progress being made to address the issue of discontinuing the use of social security numbers as student ID’s. She also announced that all clubs on campus would be taking part in a Spring Litter Clean-up Day.

Mr. Hollis reported that Peru State College would be hosting a seminar sponsored by the International Reading Association and Scholastic Magazine.

Mr. Wetherell reported that Wayne State College students are interested in adjusting the fee payment schedule so that students can purchase books at the beginning of the semester.

AGB Conference

Board members Jeff Renner, Sheryl Lindau, and Willa Kosman expressed interest in attending the annual Association of Governing Boards Conference March 18-21 in New Orleans. The System Office will coordinate the registration.

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting was adjourned at 1:55 p.m.
