Miscellaneous Items
System Marketing Plan
Sheri Irwin recently completed visits to each of the colleges and she shared a number of ideas for marketing efforts. A system newsletter will be published, with input from each of the colleges, and will be sent to media, legislators, the Governor, alumni, and selected college staff. A new NSC exhibit will be on display at the State Fair at the end of August, which will include the new NSC logo. The NSC web site is being updated to be more beneficial and friendly to students and other users. New radio public service announcements have been aired to complement the colleges’ recruiting efforts. An analysis of strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats (SWOT) of the NSC is in process. The public relations officers from the system will be working with Ms. Irwin to set up student and alumni focus groups to assist us as we develop a system marketing plan.

Executive Director’s Report
Mr. Carpenter has met with the PK-16 Committee to talk about the NSC involvement. He has also been attending meetings with the CCPE regarding the Revised Statewide Comprehensive Plan. And the Executive Director’s office staff is preparing the budget request supporting document.

Presidents’ Reports
Chadron President Krepel reported that attention is focused on the start of school. The college is also preparing to host the Board meeting in September.
Wayne President Stearns reported that meetings have been held with representatives of Central Community College in Columbus. Vice President Fuller attended the meeting to discuss distance learning collaboration. Additional conversations with Central Community College in Hastings will be forthcoming.

Student Trustee Reports
Sheryl Ehmke reported that Peru had five students return from the Phi Beta Lambda National Conference where three placed. Freshmen orientations continue on campus, and a new student weekend is scheduled. A "back to school" bash will be held the first week of school.

Tom Ward invited Board members to stay an extra day following the September meeting to attend a home football game.

Next Meeting
The next regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Nebraska State Colleges will be held on September 21-22, 2000 at Chadron State College.

ADJOURNMENT
The meeting was adjourned at 10:50 a.m.
